AN ACCOUNT

OF THE

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

THE UNITED STATES,

FOR THE

HALF CALENDAR YEAR ENDING 30TH JUNE, 1843.

Stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed on the 30th day of December, 1791.

PREPARED IN THE OFFICE OF THE REGISTER OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON :
PRINTED BY WILLIAM Q. FORCE.
1844.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

REGISTER'S OFFICE, November 8, 1844.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the printed Account of the Receipts and Expenditures of the United States for the half year ending 30th June, 1843, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of the 30th December, 1791.

This Account contains—

1st. A general account current of the receipts and expenditures for the half year ending 30th June, 1843; the debit side showing the balance in the Treasury on the 1st January agreeably to the Treasurer's account, the various sources from which the money has been received, the individual paying the money into the Treasury, the place where collected, the amount so paid by each individual, and the aggregate amount received during the said half year; the credit side showing the expenditure during the half year under the specific heads of appropriation, the aggregate under each general head, the total during the half year, and the balance in the Treasury on the 30th June, 1843. From the aggregate amounts, under the heads of Military and Naval Establishments, are deducted the repayments during the half year; these repayments being balances of specific appropriations in the hands of the individuals paying them into the Treasury, under which appropriations there have been either no expenditures, or the repayments have exceeded the expenditures during the half year; but in most of these cases the objects for which the appropriation was made have been accomplished.

2d. The payments made during the half year, arranged under general and specific heads—the latter being the precise heading of the appropriation. Under the head of each specific appropriation the total amount paid to each individual during the half year is shown; the aggregate expenditure during the half year from which the repayments, if any, are deducted. The payments are either made on settled accounts or advances to disbursing agents. In those cases where the payments are made on settled accounts, and when the object can be stated in a few lines, it is so done. This, however, does not apply to the accounts of the War and Navy Departments, which are not kept in this office. In every case of money advanced, and of which, either by act or resolution, special reports of the expenditures are required in detail, reports have accordingly been uniformly made to Congress; for instance, such as the contingent expenses of the various Departments. To make similar detailed reports of all the expenditures under the various heads of appropriation, would require a transcript of every account settled with the Government; which would be exceedingly voluminous and expensive, and beyond the accomplishment of the office with its present clerical force.

3d. Statements exhibiting the balances of appropriations unexpended on the 31st day of December, 1842; the appropriations for the service of the half year ending 30th June, 1843; the repayments during the half year; the total available; the payments during the half year; the amounts carried to the surplus fund; and the balances of appropriations on the 1st July, 1843.

4th. A statement of the duties on imports and tonnage; payments for drawback on foreign merchandise, domestic refined sugar, and domestic distilled spirits exported; payments for allowances to vessels employed in the fisheries; payments for bounties on salted fish exported; the expenses of collection, of said duties during the half year ending 30th June, 1843; and the balances in bonds, and cash in the hands of each collector at the close of that half year.

5th. Statements of balances due by supervisors, collectors, and others, of the late direct taxes and internal revenue.

6th. Statements of the operations at the several land offices in 1842, exhibiting the balances due by receivers in and out of office at the commencement and close of that year.

The statements relative to the official emoluments of officers of the customs are again omitted. The same reasons for the omission of these statements in the public accounts of last year still exist.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

T. L. SMITH, Register.

Hon. GEORGE M. BIBB,
Secretary of the Treasury.
